

PROJECT: Innovative Actions and application of intelligent technologies to strengthen the protection of the Municipality of Chios against large-scale natural phenomena

SCIENTIFIC DIRECTOR: Th. Chatzichristos

DURATION (MONTHS): 18 months

DEPARTMENT: Department of Geography and Regional Planning

FINANCIER: Municipality of Chios

DESCRIPTION: The aim of the project is to create the necessary infrastructure to strengthen its administrative capacity Municipality of Chios in the management and response of incidents and emergency situations such as earthquakes, fires, etc. At the same time, the project includes actions to inform and train citizens, a solution for information, support for vulnerable groups such as the disabled, and finally, studies identification, assessment and analysis of natural hazards which will make the platform risk management, clearly more effective, strengthening the corresponding operational plans planning and policy protection.